Graded Agency:

The Department of Labor (DOL) is pleased to accept the "A" rating on its FY2013 SBA Procurement Scorecard. This achievement has been attained through the following best practices: Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization's (OSDBU's) participation at small business vendor outreach events; senior leadership communication of agency small business procurement performance; use of small business performance standards in acquisition personnel evaluations; and the continuation of OSDBU's quarterly Small Business Vendor Outreach Sessions at the National Office in Washington, DC, which provides small businesses direct access to Department procurement officials. These best practices also ensured that the Department met all of its socioeconomic goals in FY2013. DOL will continue to be committed to maximizing Federal Government contracting opportunities for small businesses in FY2014, as well as providing a transparent accounting of its progress in meeting its small business goals.
